VERO AMORE and NOBLE HOPS / ANGEL FABIAN, chef

A native Tucsonan, Angel Fabian began cooking when he was 9 years old. Learning the trade from his grandfather, Fabian expanded his culinary portfolio by working at several restaurants, including Miraval Spa and DB Brassiere at the Wynn Las Vegas, with renowned French chef Daniel Boulud. After dabbling in other ventures, he joined his childhood friends, brothers Aric and Joshua Mussman, in opening Vero Amore and Noble Hops.

WESTIN LA PALOMA: AZUL RESTAURANT AND LOUNGE / RUSSELL MICHEL, chef

Russell Michel has over 30 years of hospitality experience and a passion for feeding the body and soul.

His signature flavorful, colorful and vibrant cuisine is designed to connect to all five senses.

Russell is passionate about applying the farm to fork concept and using the best local ingredients available. His dishes incorporate elements of home cooking, regional accents and healthful, nourishing ingredients elevated with a southwestern flare and nouveau style.

YUKI SUSHI / YUKI WATABE, executive chef

Serving Arizona for over two decades, Yuki Watabe has been providing Tucson with some of the best traditional and modern Japanese cuisine.

After coming to America in the early 1980s from Japan, he trained under various accredited chefs in California before moving to Tucson in 1988. Yuki has brought to the local community traditional Japanese dining, as well as a new and creative flare. Using the freshest ingredients available, Yuki focuses on quality as a core value in his creations.
